Preamble

The Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee (IITR) and the Technische Universität München (TUM) are mutually interested to carry on their existing academic relationship in enlarging and broadening their co-operation and in intensifying their collaboration in academic and research-related activities especially in the areas of Science and Engineering.

The two institutions have discussed the furtherance of these interests and now record their mutual understanding as follows:

Article I

The scope of collaboration on academic and research activities included in this General Agreement encompasses the following categories:

1. Research collaboration in areas of mutual interest to both parties.
2. Exchange of scientific materials which are made available by both parties.
3. Exchange of faculty members.
 - a. Both universities undertake to care, as far as possible, for the needs of visitors from the partner university and to assist them in finding suitable accommodation.
 - b. The home university will continue to pay the salary of members of staff during their stay abroad. The receiving university will make no salary payments to the visiting member of staff. Both partners will make efforts to compensate members of staff for any extra expenditure which incur.
 - c. The home university or the member of staff personally will be responsible for any travel expenses.
4. Sponsorship of co-operative seminars, workshops, and other scientific meetings on matters of mutual interest as well as nurturing joint-venture start-up companies.
5. Multilateral IIT-Sandwich exchange programme of students.

Both universities will participate in the IIT-Sandwich programme between India and Germany according to the rules laid down by the signatories, the Indian and the German Government.

6. Bilateral LAOTSE exchange program of students.

Bilaterally, both universities will participate in the TUM exchange program Links to Asia by Organising Traineeship and Student Exchange (LAOTSE), which includes the obligation to offer study programmes in English language at all participating universities and assistance to the students to find industrial internship in the host country.

- a. No study fees will be charged by the receiving university.
- b. The home University/Institution is responsible for the testing of English language skills of the exchange students.
- c. The exchange students will remain enrolled at their home university or will be granted a sabbatical term. The students will at the same time be enrolled at the receiving university.
- d. Travel costs, living expenses and the costs of medical insurance will be borne by the exchange student. TUM and IITR will negotiate with Sponsor-Companies the financial support of flight costs for the German and the Asian students, of a paid four month internship in the respective company and of additional allowances for a four month study period at TUM or IITR.

Article II

In order to carry out activities as stated in Article I, detailed plans will be formed as necessary following consultation between the two institutions and the appropriate schools, faculties, or other divisions of said institutions. Projects to be conducted are covered in Appendices to this Agreement, which shall be signed by both parties, and become integral parts of this Agreement.

Article III

1. The co-ordinator of IITR for the implementation of this General Agreement will be named by IITR. The co-ordinator of TUM for the implementation of this General Agreement will be the TUM Representative for Asia (Dr. Roland Koch).
2. The final agreement and implementation of any project will be dependent upon the availability of guaranteed support funds. Participating faculty members of IITR and TUM will propose joint projects to sponsoring institutions.
3. All intellectual property solely conceived and/or developed by TUM during the course of this Agreement shall be owned by TUM. All intellectual property solely conceived and/or developed by IITR during the course of this Agreement shall be owned by IITR. Intellectual property jointly conceived and /or developed by TUM and IITR will be jointly owned by TUM and IITR. Each party may use such property for research and scholarly purposes. TUM and IITR agree to collaborate towards the protection, if appropriate, and application of such intellectual property for commercial or other purposes on mutually acceptable terms to be negotiated in good faith between the parties.

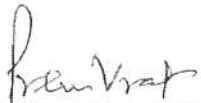

4. Neither IITR nor TUM will be responsible or held liable for the actions of the other party for any activity under this Agreement. Furthermore, neither party shall be required to purchase any insurance against loss or damage to any personal property to which this Agreement relates.

Article IV

1. This General Agreement is effective as to the date of approval/ratification by the appropriate authority of each signatory institution.
2. This General Agreement may be amended at any time by mutual consent and shall continue in force and effect for five years and can be extended by mutual consent of both parties.
3. Participants from each University/Institution, while in attendance at the host Institution facilities, shall abide by the rules and regulations of that host Institution regarding the use of facilities and conduct, and shall be subject to the laws of the host country.
